

Research Seminar Series (papers), UCC, 2020-21

Thursdays, 16.00-17.00

List of speakers:

Semester 1:

22.10.20 (W4): Dr Jérôme aan de Wiel (History, UCC): 'Ireland's forgotten or unknown humanitarian aid to The Soviet-Occupied Zone of Germany and Berlin, 1945-49'.

29.10.20 (W5): Dr Maggie Scull (History, Syracuse University London): 'The Catholic Church and the Northern Ireland "Troubles"; The case of republican funerals'.

05.11.20 (W6): none

12.11.20 (W7): Dr Dónal Hassett (French, UCC): 'The example of "Valiant Little Ireland"; The Irish revolution in Algerian nationalist thought'.

19.11.20 (W8): Dr Christopher Fuller (History, Southampton): 'Teen hackers, Hollywood, and the roots of American cyber insecurity'.

26.11.20 (W9): Dr Bozena Cierlik (History, UCC): 'Poles in UCC after WW2; "I think we should do all in our power to help as the British nor the Americans are likely to do anything for these people'.

03.12.20 (W10): Dr Igor Cașu (History, Chișinău): 'Starvation as natural disaster? The role of environment in the Soviet post-war famine in European and global context'.

10.12.20 (W11): Br Colmán Ó Clabaigh (OSB, Glenstal Abbey): 'Monks, medicine and magic in medieval Ireland'.

17.12.20 (W12): Bláithín Hurley (Art, UCC): '"An indulgence to the natives?" William Bedell's translation of the Bible into Irish'.

(Christmas recess, UCC, 18 December 2020)

Semester 2:

28.01.21 (W1): Dr Hannah Young (History, Southampton): 'The Absentee Duchess; Female slave-ownership in the aristocratic world'.

04.02.21 (W2): Dr Úna Ní Bhroiméil (History, MIC): 'A controversial Churchill bust recalls a forgotten relationship; John Quinn and Jacob Epstein, 1910-1924'

11.02.21 (W3): Prof Peter Jackson (History, Glasgow): 'Contending internationalisms; British, American and French conceptions of a league of nations at the Paris Peace Conference (1919) and after'

18.02.21 (W4): Dr Michelle Bentley (History, University of London): ‘Deliberate Lies, Big Lies, and Taboo Lies; Alleging biological warfare during the Korean War, 1950-1953’

25.02.21 (W5): Dr Alexander O’Hara (Religion, TCD): ‘The Sunniva legend and the Cistercian authorship of the earliest Norwegian hagiography’

04.03.21 (W6): Prof Christophe Gillissen (Caen, France): ‘Franco-Irish relations and the question of Algeria at the United Nations’

11.03.21 (W7): Dr Elisabeth Forster (History, Southampton): ‘Threatened by peace; The PRC’s peacefulness rhetoric and the “China” representation question in the United Nations (1949-71)’

18.03.21 (W8): Dr Alexandra Slaby (Caen, France): ‘“An awful lot so quietly”; Owen McCann, son of Ireland, South Africa’s first Prince of the Church’

25.03.21 (W9): Dr Richard Butler (MIC): ‘The railway to Beara that was never built; American shipping routes and the economic development of West Cork, 1825-45’

01.04.21 (W10): Dr Caroline Williamson Sinalo (French, UCC): ‘“I answer them, fearing that they can learn it from someone else”; Discussions of genocide history in Rwandan families’

(Easter recess, UCC, 2 April 2021, Good Friday)

15.04.21 (W11): Dr Liam Chambers (History, MIC) ‘Competing communities; Irish colleges, clergy and students in Paris, 1660-1685’

22.04.21 (W12): Prof Lindsey Earner-Byrne (History, UCC): ‘Reading gender as power and process in modern Irish history’